The following kinds of work will be assigned:

- Homework. Homework is due each Monday at 1:00 in my mailbox on the second floor of Van Vleck (in the tower). I will grade a few problems and check that you have completed all the even-numbered problems. I will not accept late work or drop any scores, but you may skip one homework for free.
- Reading. I will assign weekly reading. Each week by Sunday evening, send me an e-mail containing
 1. A brief summary of what you read.
 2. At least one question about the reading that you would like addressed in section.

All together, these reading reports will count the same as one homework assignment.

- Quizzes. We will have ungraded quizzes on Wednesday or Thursday the weeks when we don't have exams. The problems will be drawn from Dr. Malekpour's old exams.
