1 Math Department Website Tour

- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/> - This is the math department home page. The webmail button is the link to your @math.wisc.edu e-mail account.
- The Useful Links Tab
- <http://www.wisc.edu/> The university home page. You will be able to access your university e-mail (@wisc.edu) and clicking MyUW will bring you to following website:
- <https://my.wisc.edu/> Under the home tab is the student center (to register for classes, look up grades, etc.). Under the academics tab, there will be information about courses you are taking and teaching, and the faculty center (you can see your student roster, enter grades, etc.). The work record tab will have information about your earnings statements and annual tax statements.
- <http://math.library.wisc.edu/> The Kleene Mathematics Library website (the library is on B2 of Van Vleck). <http://math.library.wisc.edu/reserve/> The link to exams and course reserves is helpful because it has links to past exams in undergraduate courses to suggest to your students and has links to past qualifying exams.
- The Info Tab
- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/computing/>
- <https://www.math.wisc.edu/mathlab/login.php> If you are a teaching assistant, then some semesters you will be required to sign up to work shifts in the Mathlab (located on B2 of Van Vleck).
- The People Tab
- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/apache/psdballmath.html> The directory of everyone in the department if you want to look up someone's website, office number, office phone number, or e-mail address.
- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/apache/gallery/grad.html> There are links to both pictures of faculty with names and pictures of graduate students with names.
- The Seminars Tab
- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/seminars> There is a list by seminar and a weekly view. Also, a list each week of talks and seminars will be posted next to the elevators on the 9th floor.
- The Graduate Tab <http://www.math.wisc.edu/graduate/>
- Current Students section - Degree requirements, Program Milestones, Who Does What (staff)
- Qualifying Exams section - <http://www.math.wisc.edu/graduate/quals.htm> The exam schedule has some links to old qualifying exams and solutions.
- What's in Madison and Wisconsin section - Guide to Madison for new math graduate students A very helpful website that includes information on local banks, food, furniture, housing, international student resources, religious groups, recreation, and an additional guide to Van Vleck.

- The Undergraduate Tab

- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/tprogram/> A tutorial program for your students. To join the math tutorial program, students must apply. The program involves a significant time commitment.
- <http://www.math.wisc.edu/UCourses> Course descriptions of undergraduate courses (some of which you may teach during your graduate student career).

- Information for Teaching Assistants

- http://www.math.wisc.edu/graduate/TA_program/index.htm
- <http://www.taa-madison.org/contract/index.html> This is a version of the TAA (Teaching Assistants' Association) contract.
- <http://www.bussvc.wisc.edu/ecbs/ecbs.html> Information on benefits.
- <http://www.bussvc.wisc.edu/ecbs/uwempl-payroll-menu.html> Payroll information
- <http://www.ohr.wisc.edu/polproced/utg/SalRng.html#stuasst> Stipend amounts
- classlists.wisc.edu A classlist utility.
